

All of the wall lines running into the building for drinking water are black plastic well pipe.
All sinks toilets water fountains including hot water tanks and water softeners have been update since 2014.

